Free Family Carnival Hosted by EDH Library

This Earth Day, El Dorado Hills Library is hosting a carnival! Head over to the library on Saturday, April 22, 11:00 am-3:00 pm for an afternoon full of games, food, and fun. Entry is free and open to all ages.

The event will feature two live music performances from Laura Benitez at 12:30 and 1:30 pm, perfect for ages 0-12. Between shows, visitors can make nature-themed crafts, get their faces painted, and play classic carnival games to earn prizes. For the carnival's littlest guests, there will even be a special outdoor play area full of sensory bins and other fun toys geared for age 0-5.

In the spirit of Earth Day, you can learn about our community's awareness efforts at information booths dedicated to forest maintenance, energy conservation, preserving our local ecosystem, and more! You can also lend a hand to our community's animal friends by visiting the pet adoption booth hosted by Fat Kitty City.

Food options will be available for purchase from California Gold Kettle Corn and Joe's hot dogs.

Parking will be limited, so visitors who live nearby are encouraged to walk to the event.
